

FOOD WILL WIN THE WAR — DON'T WASTE
IT

The Seward Gateway

HE WHO WASTES A
CRUST OF BREAD PRO-LONGS THE WAR.

Daily Edition, and The Alaska Weekly Post

SEWARD, ALASKA, THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 7, 1918.

TEN CENTS PER COPY

VOLUME XII, NUMBER 106.

PEACEFEST IS NOW NO

FOCH TALKING TO HUNS

GERMAN FORCES ARE IN A ROUT

REVOLT AT HAMBURG KIEL SAILORS SEIZE SHIPS FUCH WILL DICTATE

HUNS TO ABANDON GHENT

ON THE BELGIAN FRONT, Nov. 7.—A wireless has been received here stating that the Germans have decided to abandon Ghent and asking the Belgians not to fire on the suburbs of the town where the white flags have been raised.

The Ohio troops are prominent in the relief of the city and have stormed and captured the Eecke salient sixteen miles southwest of Ghent.

NEW PRESIDENTS FOR 2 REPUBLICS

PARIS, Nov. 7.—The new Jugoslav government is now in charge of affairs in Austria. All officers have taken their oaths including Josef Paganik, former vice-President of the Austrian lower House, who is the new president.

GENEVA, Nov. 7.—The Czech Slovak Republic is now a reality with a constitution like the United States.

Dr. Karl Krama, former leader of the Hungarian Czech party, is the first president.

WHY SHOTS WERE FIRED

About 6 o'clock Tuesday, just before the alarm of fire was sounded, three distinct shots were fired, but the importance was lost during the subsequent running to the scene of the fire. It appears that the guard at the dock noticed the smoke pouring from the workshop of Brosius & Noon and fired three shots to attract attention so he could get someone to give the alarm.

M'GRATH IN BROKLYN

J. J. McGrath, former newspaperman of Seward, is now located in Brooklyn, N. Y., and employed on the Standard-Union.

LONDON, Nov. 7.—A dispatch from Copenhagen this afternoon says that there is a tremendous revolt in Hamburg among the workmen and there is artillery in the streets.

LONDON, Nov. 7.—A Wolff Bureau dispatch announces that all work has been stopped at Hamburg on account of a strike. Undisciplined acts and outrages have occurred, the men demanding more wages, better food and the end of the war.

The same bureau, which is the German official system, says similar revolts have occurred at Luebeck.

PURSUING GERMANS

PARIS, Nov. 7.—The French are pursuing the retreating Germans the entire front using cavalry on the right wing and advancing toward the Meuse.

RESCUED AT SEA

SEATTLE, Nov. 7.—The South-eastern Alaska steamer Humboldt arrived here this morning with a shipwrecked crew aboard. The lifeboats of the Humboldt were launched in a heavy sea and the crew of eleven of the fishing boat Ilwaco, wrecked on Green Island B. C., were rescued.

GERIG ON OFFICIAL TRIP.

William Gerig, Engineer in charge of the Anchorage Division, is in the city paying an official visit to Robert Weir, of the Seward Division. Mr. Gerig expects to return home tomorrow.

ALASKAN KILLED

OTTAWA, Nov. 7.—W. H. Mumby of Cordova, Alaska, fighting with the Canadian forces, has been killed in action according to the casualty report received today from the front.

Read the Gateway.

20,000 HUNS IN PARADE

STOCKHOLM, Nov. 7.—Twenty thousand deserters from the German army are this afternoon marching through the streets of Berlin unmolested and yelling "down with militarism and the Kaiser."

ELECTION

At 2 o'clock this afternoon not a bulletin had been received regarding the territorial election. In the Third Division, the returns from Roosevelt have been received but they make no change in the Delegate vote.

Last night the Gateway wired both the Dispatch, Wickersham organ, and Empire, Sulzer advocate, at Juneau, for their official returns on the Delegate vote for the territory, none had been received at 2 o'clock.

The totals in yesterday's Gateway on the territorial election, were the same as appeared in the two Juneau newspapers according to cables received last night.

AT ROOSEVELT

The following was the vote at Roosevelt:—
Connolly 1, Sulzer 6 Wickersham 6 German 5, Price 6, Ward 4, Frame 3 Green 5, Henry 2, Murry 4, Noon 13 Patterson 2, Ray 6, Reed 1, Slater 3 Small 7, Galen 1, Lee 1, Olson 1, Wilson 9.

PRECINCTS UNREPORTED

The following precincts of the Third Division were unreported this forenoon: Kenai, Seldovia, Port Chatham, Afognak, Sand Point, Unga Susitna Station, Cold Bay, Iliamna, Nakuk and several smaller ones around Nushagak.

GETTING READY FOR STORM.

The storm front is being put in place at the Alaska hotel today ready to combat the north winds.

LONDON, Nov. 7.—Mutinous German sailors at Kiel seized the battleships Kaiser and Seelöwe, hoisted the Red Flag, overpowered the officers, killed several, including the commander.

Three companies of infantry were sent to restore order and all of the infantry soldiers immediately joined the mutineers.

A fourth company of Hanzars was sent to Kiel but was forced to return.

The Soldier's council decree is that all officers aboard the battleships should remain at their posts but obey the council which controls the food supplies. Machine guns were mounted at various parts of the docks.

The cities of Cuxhaven and Wilhelmshaven are reported to be quiet.

IN HANDS OF REBELS.

LONDON, Nov. 7.—Copenhagen reports that the German navy and a great part of Schleswig is in the hands of the revolutionists.

THUNDER STORM

About 2 o'clock this section of the country had a genuine thunder storm. Thunder continued at intervals until 7 o'clock when there were several pronounced claps followed by lightning. The thunder storm seemed to be to the south, out to sea.

Throughout the forenoon and afternoon thunder and lightning continued at intervals.

TRAIN OUT SATURDAY

It was announced this afternoon that a train will be operated to Anchorage from Seward on Saturday morning.

PORTO RICAN LABORERS WANTED AT NORFOLK, VA.

SAN JUAN, Porto Rico, Nov. 7.—Twelve hundred Porto Rican laborers are wanted at Norfolk, Va., according to a cable received by F. C. Roberts from Colonel Buttler, of the quartermaster's corps of the army.

WAY OVER THE TOP.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 7.—The Fourth Liberty Loan was over-subscribed by over $860,000,000. This was officially announced by the Treasury Department this afternoon.

BULLETIN—WASHINGTON, Nov. 7.—To deny the armistice reports sent broadcast, the State Department at 2:45 o'clock this afternoon announced that the Germans had not signed the armistice terms.

Secretary of State Lansing authorized this statement.

The German armistice delegation is not to be received by Commander-in-chief Foch until 5 o'clock this afternoon.

Secretary of State Lansing's announcement came after Washington had celebrated for two hours acting upon unofficial reports that the armistice had been signed.

Crowds gathered at the White House and cheered and men swarmed out of the government buildings and marched through the streets cheering.

ARMISTICE NOT SIGNED

NEW YORK, Nov. 7.—The New York news bureau said that the London Foreign office, at 3:30 this afternoon, had no confirmation of the report that Germany had accepted the armistice conditions.

Other news organizations sent out bulletins reporting that advices had been received from London at 11 o'clock saying that the armistice had been signed and the war was over. These organizations were forced to deny their former bulletins.

BE DAYS BEFORE A TRUCE.

PARIS, Nov. 7.—Provided the German delegation signs the armistice terms, it will be several days before a truce can be arranged.

HUNS ON FRENCH SOIL.

LONDON, Nov. 7.—Commander-in-chief Foch early today notified the German armistice party that it should advance to the French lines along the Chimay-Fourmies-Luce-elle-Guise road if it wished to meet him. Foch then stated that the Plenipotentiaries would then be conducted to a place upon French soil, for an interview.

FRENCH ARE HOPEFUL

PARIS, Nov. 7.—The news that the German White Flag part left for the front impressed France deeply.

Germany's prompt action on the armistice took France completely by surprise and evidently removed the last lingering doubts regarding Germany's sincerity in asking for the Allied terms.

Meanwhile the Allies are giving the enfeebled enemy forces no rest. Retreat of the Germans is almost a rout. The British are near Maubeuge and the French converging on Hirson.

STEAMER DOPE

The Admiral Watson is expected in the morning on the way south.

There is no word from the freighter Skagway at 2 o'clock.

The Alameda is understood to be coming north via the inside passage and should be in Ketchikan today.

SEDAN IS TAKEN BY YANKEES

PARIS, Nov. 7.—The American this morning entered that part of Sedan lying west of the Meuse. This is an official report.

G.O.P. CLAIM SENATE

WASHINGTON, Nov. 7.—The Republican National Committee issued a statement this afternoon, claiming that the Republicans will control the Senate by 50 to 46. The count however is still unsettled in the western states.

MUMMA IN SEWARD.

Fred T. Mumma, in charge of the T. & T., Department of the A. E. C., is on a business trip here. Mr. Mumma expects to return to Anchorage his headquarters, on tomorrow's special train.

ALASKAN IS PROMOTED TO BE SECOND LIEUTENANT.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 7.—Edward Spenn Bleeker, of Fox City, Alaska, has been commissioned a Second Lieutenant in the Camp Taylor Artillery School.